DIED -On Wednesday last, the four-Oh, the Pain of y ar-old child of Thos. Bramblett, near Rheumatism!

Rheumatism often causes the most intense suffering. Many have for years Barlow, Headquarters, on June 1st, vainly sought relief from this disabling 1898, Mr. W. S. Earlywine and Miss disease, and are to-day worse off than ever. Rheumatism is a blood disease, and Swift's Specific is the only cure, because it is the only remedy which can reach such deep-seated diseases.

A few years ago I was taken with inflammatory Rheumatism, which became so intense that I was for weeks unable to walk. I tried several prominent physicians and took their treatment faithfully, but was unable to get the slightest relief. In fact, my condition seemed to grow worse, the disease spread over my entire body, and from November to March I suffered agony. I tried many patent medicines, but none relieved me. Upon the advice of a friend I decided to try
